ANNEXURE A

Terms and Conditions of Internship

You shall be governed by the following terms and conditions during your internship with NayePankh Foundation. The Foundation reserves the right to amend or modify these terms from time to time at its discretion.

1. Position and Responsibilities

You are appointed as a Campus Ambassador Intern. In this role, you will represent NayePankh Foundation within your educational institution and social network and shall be responsible for promoting the Foundation's initiatives, encouraging student participation, and expanding awareness about various opportunities, campaigns, and programs conducted by the organization.

2. Mode of Work

This internship will be conducted remotely. Interns may be invited to participate in periodic virtual meetings, orientation sessions, and discussions to review progress and share experiences.

3. Intellectual Property

All work created, developed, or contributed by you during or in relation to your internship with NayePankh Foundation shall remain the sole intellectual property of the organization. You shall not store, copy, reproduce, sell, distribute, or share any such material with any third party under any circumstances.

4. Confidentiality and Data Protection

You may have access to confidential information, including but not limited to data and contact details of students, donors, clients, partners, or associated organizations. Maintaining the confidentiality and security of such information is your responsibility. NayePankh Foundation follows a zero-tolerance policy toward any breach of data privacy or security guidelines.

5. Communication

All official communication during the internship shall take place via Call and WhatsApp. Prompt and professional two-way communication is mandatory.

6. Responsiveness and Reporting

You are required to acknowledge all information, documents, PDFs, and messages shared in official groups. You must also provide timely updates regarding your activities and progress whenever requested by the organization.

7. Termination

Under normal circumstances, either party may terminate this association by providing seven (7) days' notice without assigning any reason. However, the organization reserves the right to terminate the internship immediately in cases of misconduct, inactivity, misrepresentation, or indiscipline.

8. Professional Conduct

You are expected to maintain the highest standards of professionalism while interacting with team members, students, faculty members, and other stakeholders. Respectful and ethical conduct is mandatory at all times.

9. Organizational Culture

NayePankh Foundation is a Non-Governmental Organization that values initiative, creativity, dedication, and a willingness to exceed expectations. Interns are encouraged to demonstrate leadership, innovation, and commitment while representing the organization.

10. Core Values

Integrity and excellence are fundamental principles of NayePankh Foundation. You are expected to uphold these values and reflect them in your day-to-day responsibilities and conduct.

11. Learning and Development Opportunity

This internship has been designed primarily as a leadership, networking, and professional development opportunity aimed at enhancing your communication, interpersonal, and organizational skills while enabling you to contribute meaningfully towards social impact initiatives. This is an unpaid internship.

12. Recognition

Interns demonstrating satisfactory participation and outstanding performance may be eligible for various recognitions, including Internship Completion Certificate, Appreciation Certificate, Letter of Recommendation (LOR), LinkedIn Recommendation, and other performance-based recognitions, subject to the Foundation's policies and evaluation criteria.
